CHRISTMAS UPDATE!

Yikes, December is almost here! Our Christmas trees have been delivered – one for school and one for St. Oswald's Christmas Tree Festival.

Well done to Mrs Galbraith who after last year's success, has come up with a different idea for using CDs as tree decorations. Class 4 are finishing the decorations ready to take everything to the church next Tuesday. As last year, our Christmas tree is focused on collecting money for The BIG I.T. Drive. You can go along and admire our tree, along with many others, at St. Oswald's on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday next week.

The Travelling Crib will be starting its journey from home to home on Sunday.

The CHRISTMAS POSTBOX will be ready to receive Christmas cards on TUESDAY.

This week, we have heard lots of lovely singing as the children learn and practise the songs for this year's Christmas performance 'I'm gonna shine'. It's going to be wonderful!

Remember Friday 6th December is the PTA. Non-Uniform Day when children can wear what they want (sensible footwear needed please!) and bring a bottle for the Christmas Fair Tombola.

Children can get involved in making Christingles as part of Messy Church at Warton Methodist Church on Tuesday 10th December from 3.15pm to 5.15pm.

The PTA are busy planning for their Christmas Fair on Friday 13th December – we hope you can help out and join our fundraising for Phase 3 of THE BIG I.T. Drive. Our next goal is to replace the existing interactive whiteboards used in classrooms.

Only THREE weeks of this term left!
