You are Invited to Stay + Read

On Wednesday 9th November we will be running some reading activities in class and you are invited to stay and learn more about reading at Archbishop Hutton's.

When you drop your child off you are welcome to wait in the hall. The activities will start after registration and run until around 9:30. We hope it will give you a better idea of how reading is taught in school.

Play Leader Training

Mr Harris has been working with the newly appointed Play Leaders to train them for their role. They have been learning some new games and have been working on how to encourage children to join in. He has been very impressed with their attitude and dedication so far.

SCHOLASTIC

COME TO THE BOOK FAIR

AND EARN FREE BOOKS FOR OUR SCHOOL

Four book covers are displayed against a dark blue background with fire-like effects. From left to right: 'The Elemental Detectives' by Patrice Lawrence, 'The Baddies' by Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler, 'Spaceboy' by David Walliams, and 'Future Hero: Race to Fire Mountain' by Remi Blackwood.

Next week, we will have the Scholastic Book Fair in school, for the first time in three years. The book fair offers a wide range of exciting books - many at reduced prices. For every book sold the school gets some money to spend for the library. If you are interested the fair will be in the Learning Lab classroom on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 3:15pm.
